

ALCOHOL POLICY - CORRALES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

POLICY STATEMENT

In order to encourage fuller use of the historic Old Church property (hereafter “the Property”), the Corrales Historical Society (Hereafter “CHS”), under certain conditions and in its sole discretion, may permit the consumption and sale of alcohol upon the Property. For example, and for illustrative purposes only, alcohol may be permitted as part of a wedding or anniversary celebration, a wine tasting or a business meeting, by the holder of a New Mexico Dispenser’s license under a Special Dispenser Permit (SDP).

CHS has the authority to determine the time, place, quantities and conditions under which alcoholic beverages are consumed on the Property, including the right to refuse to serve alcohol at any event or to any person. The service and sale of alcoholic beverages on the Property and at CHS sponsored events must comply with state and municipal law and the requirements of this policy.

All approved events on the Property must comply with all New Mexico and Village of Corrales ordinances regarding liquor. For example, New Mexico law provides “Everyone who sells or serves alcohol in the state of New Mexico is required to obtain a permit by taking a New Mexico approved Alcohol Server Education class. This includes all bartenders, alcohol license owners, convenience or grocery store clerks, and resident agent for license and waiters.”

If the event where alcohol will be served is in the evening and has amplified music, a Noise Permit from the Village of Corrales must also be obtained. Responsibility for acquiring all necessary permits and appropriate insurance rests solely with the party or parties renting the Property. CHS understands and fully supports the New Mexico liquor laws and takes all violations of the Liquor Control Act seriously.
